State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Subsequent to June 30, 2007, the mortgage industry, and the financing methods that the mortgage industry relies upon, have deteriorated in a significant and unprecedented fashion. Since August 3, 2007, the secondary market for mortgage loans and mortgage-backed securities has effectively seized-up. As a result, Luminent is simultaneously experiencing a significant increase in margin calls on its highest quality assets and a decrease on the financing advance rates provided by its repurchase agreement lenders, and has consequently been unable to roll outstanding commercial paper issued under its commercial paper program.

Luminent is exploring all of its alternatives with respect to its loss of liquidity resulting from the unanticipated disruptions in the secondary mortgage and national real estate markets, and is therefore delaying the filing of its June 30, 2007 Form 10-Q until a full assessment of the impact of its liquidity issues, including their impact on the company's ability to continue as a going concern, has been conducted and strategic alternatives have been developed.
