Any Proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before it is voted. Proxies may be revoked by (i) filing a written notice of revocation with the Chairman or Secretary of the Company, at or before the Annual Meeting, (ii) duly executing a subsequent proxy relating to the same shares and delivering it to the Chairman or Secretary of the Company at or before the Annual Meeting or (iii) attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person with adequate notification (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy). Unless revoked, the shares represented by the enclosed Proxy will be voted at the meeting in accordance with any specification made thereon, if the Proxy is returned properly executed and delivered in time for voting. Unless otherwise specified, the Proxy will be voted "FOR" the election of the three director nominees.

Management does not intend to present, and does not know of anyone who intends to present, any matters at the meeting to be acted upon by the shareholders not referred to in the Notice and this Proxy Statement. If any other matters should properly come before the meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the Proxy to vote in accordance with their judgment on such matters.

The shareholders of the Company have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors at the Annual Meeting if notice in writing is given by any shareholder to the President, a Vice President or the Secretary of the Company not less than 48 hours before the time fixed for holding the Annual Meeting that the shareholder desires that the voting at such election shall be cumulative. An announcement of the giving of such notice shall be made upon the convening of the Annual Meeting by the Chairman or Secretary.

If voting for the election of directors at the Annual Meeting is cumulative, each shareholder will have the right to cast that number of votes which equals the number of shares owned by the shareholder multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, and the shareholder may cast all such votes for one candidate or distribute such votes among any number of candidates as the shareholder elects. The actual number of shares required for election of a candidate will vary depending upon the total number of shares voted. However, shareholders owning 1,985,918 shares, or approximately 25% of the Company's outstanding shares, could elect at least one director to the class of three directors to be elected at the 2003 Annual Meeting if there are four nominees.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The following directors, whose terms of office expire at the Annual Meeting, Messrs. James N. DeBoer, David W. Hockenbrocht, and James D. Fast are nominees for election to a three (3) year term expiring in 2006. The following portion of this Proxy Statement contains additional information about these nominees.

A plurality of the votes cast at the meeting is required to elect the nominees as directors of the Company. As such, the three individuals who receive the greatest number of votes cast by the holders of Common Stock will be elected as directors. Shares not voted at the Annual Meeting, whether by abstention, broker non-vote, or otherwise, will not be treated as votes cast at the meeting.

It is believed that all three nominees are, and will be at the time of the Annual Meeting, available for election; and, if elected, will serve. However, in the event one or more of them is or should become unavailable, or should decline to serve, it is intended that the proxies will be voted for the balance of the nominees and for such substitute nominee or nominees as the proxy holders may in their discretion select.

BOARD RECOMMENDATIONS

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE THREE NOMINEES, MESSRS. JAMES N. DEBOER, DAVID W. HOCKENBROCHT, AND JAMES D. FAST. Unless otherwise directed by marking the accompanying proxy, the proxy holders named therein will vote FOR the election of the three nominees.

In the following table, the column "Amount and Nature of Beneficial Ownership" relates to common shares of the Company beneficially owned by the directors and nominees as of August 29, 2003, and is based upon information furnished by them.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 was enacted on July 30, 2002. The statute addresses, among other issues, corporate governance, auditing and accounting, executive compensation, and enhanced and timely disclosure of corporate information. The New York Stock Exchange has proposed corporate governance rules, subsequently amended, that were submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission for review and approval. These proposed rules specifically address director independence and corporate accountability. The proposed changes are intended to allow stockholders to more easily and efficiently monitor the performance of companies and directors.

Sparton's Board of Directors is developing a series of changes to address the requirements. A revised charter for the Audit Committee was filed with the Fiscal 2001 Proxy Statement. The Audit Committee has adopted a policy for pre-approving all services, audit and non-audit, performed by the Independent Auditors. This policy is attached as Appendix A. In addition, the Board of Directors is currently developing charters for the Compensation, Executive, and Nominating Committees. These charters will address issues such as independence of the committee members, committee organization and powers, member qualifications, duties and responsibilities, and Corporate Governance. The Company is formally defining its Corporate Governance policies and practices and their place within the Board's committee structure.

Code of Ethics

"The Sparton Way" governs the actions and working relationships of Sparton employees, officers and directors. The Sparton Way endorses the highest level of ethical standards, along with addressing other issues such as corporate opportunities, confidentiality, and the protection and proper use of corporate assets. The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures from BDO Seidman, LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussion with Audit Committees), discussed with BDO Seidman, LLP their independence, and considered the compatibility of non-audit services provided by BDO Seidman, LLP with their independence.

Based on the review and discussion described above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, be included in Sparton's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The following tables provide certain data and information on the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and its four most highly compensated executive officers (other than the CEO) whose annual salary and bonus exceeded $100,000 (collectively referred to as the "Named Executives"). This report addresses the Company's compensation policies and programs for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, the details of which are reflected in the tables set forth in the following pages of this Proxy Statement. The Company's and the Board's policies and practices pertaining to the compensation of executive officers and management have been in effect for a number of years.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Decisions on the compensation of the Company's executive officers are monitored by the Board's Compensation Committee. This Committee is composed of three non-employee directors; Messrs. James N. DeBoer, David P. Molfenter and W. Peter Slusser. In addition, Mr. David W. Hockenbrocht, Chief Executive Officer and President, consults as a non-voting member.

The Company has long-established policies and practices intended to compensate its salaried employees in a manner that will enable the Company to attract, retain and motivate them to accomplish corporate goals and objectives. These policies and practices encourage management to remain dedicated to the maximization of shareholder value.

The Company's compensation program encompasses several elements: cash compensation (including salary and incentive bonus), incentive stock options and defined benefit and defined contribution retirement plans. Reflective of the Company's goal of relating compensation to corporate performance, the incentive bonus compensation plan permits certain executive officers to earn additional compensation if the pre-tax earnings of their operating unit are in excess of an established goal. The performance goals for this plan are reviewed and approved annually by the Compensation Committee. In addition, at the discretion of the Committee, bonuses may be paid in addition to or in lieu of bonuses earned under the incentive bonus plan based on the Committee's evaluation of the employee's individual performance, level of responsibility and experience. During the past fiscal year, discretionary bonuses, as well as bonuses under the incentive bonus compensation plan, were paid.

The Committee members, who are non-employee directors, use the same procedures described above in setting the annual salary, bonus, and incentive stock option grants for Mr. David W. Hockenbrocht, the Company's Chief Executive Officer. These Committee members evaluate the performance of Mr. Hockenbrocht at least annually based on both the Company's financial performance and the extent to which the strategic and business goals established for the Company are met. Mr. Hockenbrocht does not have an employment agreement with the Company.

Mr. Hockenbrocht's annual base salary for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, was $315,000. In addition, Mr. Hockenbrocht was awarded a bonus of $131,890. Mr. Hockenbrocht was also awarded stock options for 35,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock during the fiscal year, 25,000 of which were subsequently adjusted to 26,250 as a result of the 5% stock dividend distributed on February 18, 2003.

RETIREMENT PROGRAMS

The Company maintains a defined benefit retirement plan for domestic employees of the Company which provides for monthly pensions following retirement. During the past year, no cash contributions were made by the Company to the plan as in the judgment of the Company's independent actuaries, the pension plan was fully funded. The plan provides a basic benefit of $2.25 per month for each year of credited service up to a maximum of $90 per month. In addition, for those participants who contributed 5% of their monthly compensation (excluding bonuses) per month, the plan provides for an additional monthly pension amount equal to 1 1/2% of the participant's final five-year average monthly compensation (excluding bonuses) times the participant's years of contributory credited service to a maximum of 30 years. Effective April 1, 2000, the Company amended its defined benefit retirement plan to determine benefits by a cash balance formula. Under the cash balance formula, each participant has a benefit equal to their cash balance account which is credited yearly with 2% of their salary, as well as the interest earned on their previous year-end cash balance. Service under the Company's prior salary-based formula was frozen as of March 31, 2000, and the benefit formula amended to calculate the monthly pension based upon the participant's final five-year average earnings as defined.

The following table shows the estimated annual retirement benefits, payable under the prior salary-based formula, in specified remuneration and service classifications upon normal retirement at age 65 (or June 30, 2003, if the individual is currently age 65 or older). The benefits shown are not subject to any deduction for Social Security or other offset amounts. The maximum amount of annual compensation allowed to be included in determining final average compensation has been limited by Federal statute to $200,000 for 2003. This amount is subject to future adjustment by the Internal Revenue Service.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

In June of 2002, the Board of Directors, including members of the Audit Committee, met to review, among other matters, the accounting and auditing services provided to the Company. After reviewing the subject, it was suggested that as a matter of good corporate practice, the Company solicit proposals for accounting and auditing services for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2003. In October 2002, the Company commenced soliciting proposals from a number of firms, including Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's auditors at that time.

The Company received a letter from Ernst & Young LLP, on November 19, 2002, indicating that they resigned as the Company's independent public accountants effective on that date.

The reports of Ernst & Young LLP on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2001, and June 30, 2002, did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

In connection with the audits of the Company's financial statements for each of the fiscal years ended June 30, 2001, and June 30, 2002, and in the subsequent interim period that ended September 30, 2002, there were no disagreements between the Company and Ernst & Young LLP on matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedures which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young LLP, would have caused Ernst & Young LLP to make reference to such matter in its reports on the financial statements of the Company.

In connection with the audits of the Company's financial statements for each of the fiscal years ended June 30, 2001, and June 30, 2002, and in the subsequent interim period that ended September 30, 2002, there were no "reportable events" within the meaning of Item 304(a)(1)(v) of the Securities and Exchange Commission's Regulation S-K.

On November 21, 2002, the Company filed on Form 8-K, Item 4 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant, reporting the resignation of its certifying accountant Ernst & Young LLP. The Company's Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, engaged BDO Seidman, LLP as of December 20, 2002, as the Company's independent public accountants.

On December 20, 2002, the Company filed on Form 8-K, Item 4 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant, reporting the selection of its new certifying accountant BDO Seidman, LLP.

Representatives of BDO Seidman, LLP, the Company's independent auditors, are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting. They will have an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

APPENDIX A

SPARTON CORPORATION PRE-APPROVAL POLICY FOR AUDIT AND NON-AUDIT SERVICES

I. STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES

Under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the independent auditors. As part of that responsibility, the Audit Committee is required to pre-approve the audit and non-audit services performed by its independent auditors in order to ensure that the provision of such services does not impair the auditors' independence from the Company. Unless a type of service to be provided by the independent auditors has received general pre-approval, it will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

For both general and specific pre-approvals of services, the Audit Committee will consider whether such services are consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence and whether the independent auditors should be precluded from performing any particular service, even if otherwise permitted by the SEC's independence rules. The Audit Committee is also mindful of the relationship between fees for audit and non-audit services in deciding whether to pre-approve such services.

Section 1 to this Policy describes the Audit, Audit-related, Tax and All Other services that have the general pre-approval of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will annually review and pre-approve the services that may be provided by the independent auditor without obtaining specific pre-approval from the Audit Committee, and such services will be considered approved through the next annual review. The Audit Committee will revise the list of general pre-approved services from time to time, based on subsequent determinations. The Audit Committee does not delegate its responsibilities to pre-approve services performed by the independent auditors to management.

II. DELEGATION

The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member or members to whom such authority is delegated shall report any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. Unless otherwise decided, the Chairman of the Audit Committee is delegated with such pre-approval authority.

III. AUDIT SERVICES

The annual Audit services engagement letter, which incorporates the terms and fees related to Audit, Audit-related and All Other services, as applicable, will be subject to the specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will approve, if necessary, any changes in terms, conditions and fees resulting from changes in scope, the Company's structure or other matters.

In addition to the annual Audit services engagement specifically approved by the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee may grant general pre-approval for other Audit services, which are those services that only the independent auditors reasonably can provide. The Audit Committee has pre-approved the Audit services listed in Section 1. Any other Audit services not listed in Section 1 must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

IV. AUDIT-RELATED SERVICES

Audit-related services are assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's consolidated financial statements or that are traditionally performed by the independent auditors. The Audit Committee believes that the provision of the Audit-related services does not impair the independence of the independent auditors, and has pre-approved the Audit-related services listed in Section 1. Any other Audit-related services not listed in Section 1 must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

V. TAX SERVICES

Edgar Filing: SPARTON CORP - Form DEF 14A

The annual Tax services engagement letter, which incorporates the terms and fees related to Tax services, will be subject to the specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will approve, if necessary, any changes in terms, conditions and fees resulting from changes in scope, the Company's structure or other matters.

The Audit Committee believes that the independent auditors can provide Tax services to the Company such as tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice without impairing the auditors' independence. However, the Audit Committee will not permit the retention of the independent auditors in connection with a transaction initially recommended by the independent auditors, the sole business purpose of which may be tax avoidance and the tax treatment of which may not be supported by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations. The Audit Committee has pre-approved the Tax services listed in Section 1. Any Tax services not listed in Section 1 must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

VI. ALL OTHER SERVICES

The Audit Committee may grant general pre-approval to those permissible non-audit services classified as All Other services that it believes are routine and recurring services, and would not impair the independence of the independent auditors. The Audit Committee has pre-approved the All Other services listed in Section 1. Any permissible Other services not listed in Section 1 must be specifically pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

A list of the SEC's prohibited non-audit services is included in Section 2. The SEC's rules and relevant guidance will be consulted to determine the precise definitions of these services and the applicability of exceptions to certain of the prohibitions.

VII. ENGAGEMENT TERMS AND FEE ARRANGEMENTS

Engagement terms, including fee arrangements, for all services to be provided by the independent auditors will be approved annually by the Audit Committee. Any proposed changes in terms outside the pre-approved terms will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

VIII. PROCEDURES

Requests or applications to provide services that require specific approval by the Audit Committee will be submitted to the Audit Committee by both the independent auditors and the Company's Chief Financial Officer and must include a joint statement as to whether, in their view, the request or application is consistent with the SEC's rules on auditor independence. Procedures for notification and pre-approval of services for other domestic and international offices and other departments (e.g., tax department) of the independent auditors will be coordinated through the lead domestic audit partner.

IX. ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

The Audit Committee has determined to take additional measures on an annual basis to meet its responsibilities to oversee the work of the independent auditors and to ensure the auditors' independence from the Company, such as reviewing a formal written statement from the independent auditors describing all relationships between the independent auditors and the discussing with the independent auditors its methods and procedures for ensuring independence.
