Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 2, 2014, Covance Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), Laboratory Corporation of America Holdings, a Delaware corporation (“Parent”), and Neon Merger Sub Inc., a Delaware corporation and a subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Subsidiary will be merged with and into the Company, with the Company surviving as a subsidiary of Parent (the “Merger”).

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the “Company Shares”) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (other than (i) Company Shares owned directly by the Company as treasury stock or owned directly by Parent or Merger Sub, (ii) certain shares of Company restricted stock and (iii) Company Shares that are owned by stockholders who have perfected and not withdrawn a demand for appraisal rights pursuant to Delaware law) will be converted into the right to receive (a) $75.76 in cash, without interest (the “Cash Consideration”), and (b) 0.2686 shares (the “Stock Consideration” and, together with the Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”) of common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of Parent (the “Parent Shares”).

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including customary conditions relating (i) to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by holders of a majority of the outstanding Company Shares entitled to vote on the Merger at a duly convened meeting (the “Company Stockholder Approval”) and (ii) to the expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended. The obligation of each party to consummate the Merger is also conditioned upon, among other things, the other party’s representations and warranties being true and correct (subject to certain materiality exceptions) and the other party having performed in all material respects its obligations under the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub. Additionally, the Merger Agreement contains customary pre-closing covenants, including covenants requiring each party (i) to use reasonable best efforts to cause the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (ii) to conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice and (iii) to refrain from taking certain actions prior to the consummation of the Merger without the other party’s consent. In addition, the Merger Agreement requires that the Company covenant to not solicit proposals relating to alternative transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions concerning or provide information in connection with alternative transactions and that the Company covenant to, subject to certain exceptions, recommend that the Company’s stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement.

Prior to obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval, the Company’s board of directors may, among other things, withdraw, qualify or modify its recommendation that the Company’s stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement or approve, recommend or otherwise declare advisable any Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement), or terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into an Acquisition Agreement (as defined in the Merger Agreement) providing for a Superior Proposal, subject to complying with notice and other specified conditions, including giving Parent the opportunity to propose revisions to the terms of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement during a period following notice and the payment of the Company Termination Fee (as defined below) prior to or concurrently with such termination.

The Merger Agreement also provides for certain mutual termination rights of the Company and Parent, including the right of either party to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated by the 7-month anniversary of the date of the Merger Agreement (the “Termination Date”). Either party may also terminate the Merger Agreement if (i) the Company Stockholder Approval has not been obtained, (ii) an order permanently restraining, enjoining, or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the Merger shall become final and non-appealable or (iii) if the other party shall have breached any representations and warranties made in, or obligations under, the Merger Agreement and such breach would cause a failure of the other party’s conditions to close the Merger. In addition, Parent may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Company’s board of directors (a) fails to recommend the Merger to the Company’s stockholders, (b) changes its recommendation of the Merger prior to obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval or (c) fails to publicly reaffirm its recommendation of the Merger under certain circumstances.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated by Parent as a result of (i) the Company’s board of directors failing to recommend the Merger to the Company’s Stockholders, (ii) the Company’s board of directors changing its recommendation of the Merger prior to the Company Stockholder Approval having been obtained or (iii) the Company failing to publicly reaffirm its recommendation when required to do so under the Merger Agreement, the Company shall be obligated to pay Parent a fee equal to $200,000,000 (such amount, the “Company Termination Fee”).

Further, if the Merger Agreement is terminated (i) by Parent or the Company if the Company Stockholder Approval has not been obtained, (ii) by the Company or Parent if the Merger has not been consummated by the Termination Date and the Company’s stockholders’ meeting to approve the Merger has not been held by such date or (iii) by Parent due to an incurable material breach by the Company under certain circumstances, and prior to such termination but after the date of the Merger Agreement a bona fide acquisition proposal shall have been made to the Company or its stockholders, or any person shall have publicly announced an intention (whether or not conditional) to make a bona fide acquisition proposal with respect to the Company, and within 12 months of such termination, the Company or any of its subsidiaries consummates an acquisition proposal or enters into a definitive agreement regarding an acquisition proposal, then the Company shall be obligated to pay the Parent Termination Fee concurrently with such entry or consummation. If the Merger Agreement is terminated, under certain circumstances, the Company must reimburse Parent for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Parent in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby up to a maximum of either $30,000,000 or $50,000,000, depending on the reason for the circumstances giving rise to such termination (and any such reimbursement shall reduce on a dollar for dollar basis any Company Termination Fee that subsequently becomes payable by the Company).

In addition, if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances due to the failure to obtain antitrust regulatory approvals or the material breach by the Parent of its obligations in respect of obtaining such antitrust regulatory approvals, Parent will pay the Company a reverse termination fee of $305,000,000.

Parent has obtained debt financing commitments to fund (together with cash on hand of Parent) the Cash Consideration portion of the Merger Consideration pursuant to a commitment letter entered into on November 2, 2014, among Parent, Bank of America, N.A., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC. The Merger Agreement requires Parent to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the financing on the terms and conditions described in those commitments. However, the Merger Agreement does not contain a financing condition.

The foregoing summary description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to this Current Report on Form 8-K in order to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other financial information about the parties thereto or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates; were solely for the benefit of the parties thereto; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by such parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties thereto instead of establishing these matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors and security holders. Investors and security holders should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties to the Merger Agreement or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the parties thereto.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On November 3, 2014, the Company and Parent issued a joint press release announcing they had entered into the Merger Agreement. A copy of such joint press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, and is incorporated by reference herein.
