ENDO PHARMACEUTICALS HOLDINGS INC. PERMITS BOARD MEMBERS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS TO ENTER INTO RULE 10B5-1 TRADING PLANS

Chadds Ford, PA, December 14, 2001 - The Board of Directors of Endo Pharmaceuticals Holdings Inc. (NASDAQ: ENDP and ENDPW) today amended the Company's insider trading policy to permit its Board members and executive officers to enter into trading plans pursuant to the recently adopted Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Rule 10b5-1 permits insiders to adopt written plans to make future trades in Company securities at a time when they are not in possession of material nonpublic information. Shares are then traded in accordance with the plan, regardless of any subsequent nonpublic information that insiders receive. Such plans can cover purchases or sales of Company securities.

In addition, John W. Lyle, Chairman of the Company's Board, has adopted such a trading plan in order to provide for the orderly disposition of a portion of the shares of Company common stock held by his wife, Karen B. Lyle, gradually diversify her financial holdings and avoid being prohibited from trading any Company shares for long periods of time due to material nonpublic information he may possess during the traditional trading "windows." Mr. Lyle's trading plan provides for the sale of up to 85,000 shares per quarter, provided that specified trading prices are achieved, over a period of 1 year (unless the plan is terminated sooner in accordance with its terms) beginning on January 16, 2002.

We anticipate that, as permitted by Rule 10b5-1 and our amended insider trading policy, some or all of our executive officers and directors may establish trading plans at some date in the future. It should be noted that the shares of common stock that our executives receive upon exercise of stock options pursuant to the Endo Pharma LLC 1997 Stock Option Plan are currently, and will remain, subject to significant restrictions that are set forth in the stockholders agreements, including sale, assignment, mortgage, transfer, pledge or other disposals or transfers.
