Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation

On October 4, 2018, Teleflex Incorporated (the “Company”) entered into confirmations for cross currency swap transactions (the “Swaps”) with each of Bank of America, N.A., Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, Citibank, N.A., Citizens Bank, N.A. and U.S. Bank National Association (each, a “Hedge Counterparty” and collectively, the “Hedge Counterparties”). The Swaps, which are governed by the provisions of ISDA Master Agreements (including schedules thereto and transaction confirmations that supplement such ISDA Master Agreements) entered into between the Company and each of the Hedge Counterparties (each, a “Swap Agreement” and collectively, the “Swap Agreements”), enable the Company to effectively convert a portion of its fixed-rate USD denominated debt obligations into fixed-rate euro-denominated debt. Under the Swap Agreements, the Company will be obligated to make periodic euro-denominated coupon payments to the Hedge Counterparties on an aggregate notional amount of €433,877,126 at an interest rate of 1.942% per annum, in exchange for periodic U.S. dollar-denominated coupon payments from the Hedge Counterparties on an aggregate notional amount of $500,000,000 at an interest rate of 4.625% per annum.

Each Swap Agreement is scheduled to mature on October 4, 2023. A Swap Agreement may be accelerated or terminated early for a number of reasons, including but not limited to (i) non-payment by the Company or the Hedge Counterparty, (ii) breach of representation or warranty or covenant by either party or (iii) insolvency or bankruptcy of either party. If the Swap Agreement is accelerated or terminated early, the net mark-to-market value of the Swap would be determined in accordance with the Swap Agreement. Upon maturity, acceleration or early termination of a Swap Agreement, one party will be required to make payment of such net mark-to-market value to the other party. Each such payment obligation will be determined based on the prevailing euro to U.S. dollar exchange rate and the euro debt coupon at the time of the maturity, acceleration or early termination relative to the euro to U.S. dollar exchange rate and the euro-denominated coupon specified in the Swap Agreement.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
